

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-15a

I can use my knowledge of current social, political or economic issues to interpret evidence and present an informed view.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-16a

I can explain why a group I have identified might experience inequality and can suggest ways in which this inequality might be addressed.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-17a

I have compared the rights and responsibilities of citizens in Scotland with a contrasting society and can describe and begin to understand reasons for differences.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-18a

I understand the arrangements for political decision making at different levels and the factors which shape these arrangements.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-19a

I can describe how the interdependence of countries affects levels of development, considering the effects on people's lives.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-19b

Having considered responses to a recent international crisis, I can contribute to a discussion of the effectiveness of the responses.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business
Third Level SOC 3-20a

When participating in an enterprise activity, I can explore ethical issues relating to business practice and gain an understanding of how businesses help to satisfy needs.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business

Third Level SOC 3-20b

I can present conclusions about the impact of the globalisation of trade on patterns of work and conditions of employment in Scotland, the UK or beyond.

Social Studies - People in society, economy and business

Third Level SOC 3-21a

I can understand the necessity for budgeting and determine ways to manage finance, considering possible investment opportunities, savings, risks or borrowing needs.